

SALE UPDATE

Due to the developing Coronavirus status, this could be your last opportunity to purchase Bulls and Heifers this spring at a public facility.

In a continued effort to serve our customers we ARE still planning to conduct our sale Saturday, March 21 in McAlester, Oklahoma. Bulls will be available for viewing starting Thursday and the heifers on Friday.

If you are unable to attend, we will be happy to work with you on an absentee purchase. For your convenience, we will be available via phone bidding or you can buy online at DV Auction. Following the sale, we will facilitate hauling arrangements to central locations as needed.

Please watch our Website and Facebook for more information.

Thanks again to all our loyal friends and customers for your support!
